LBJ Talks to Leaders About Pending Issues

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic congressional leaders gave President Johnson an optimistic report today on prospects for enactment of his billion-dollar Appalachian development bill, one of the must measures on the President's legislative program.

Speaker John McCormack of Massachusetts said the House would take the bill up Wednesday and that he believed it would be passed, provided there is a full attendance when the vote is taken.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana has tabbed the bill for Senate consideration after action on the pending bill to increase Social Security payments.

The development bill is aimed at depressed economic areas in the Appalachian Mountain sections of 11 states. Most of the billion dollars would be spent for highways and access roads, but also included are programs to improve vocational education, health facilities and water and timber resources.

The congressional leaders went over the whole legislative situation with the President who returned Monday night from a long weekend at his Texas Ranch.

Mansfield told newsmen there are only a few bills left which the administration feels must be acted on at this session.

As for adjournment prospects, Mansfield said he hoped Congress could complete its work in a reasonably short time so senators up for re-election can hit the campaign trail and those up for re-election can help them.

Monday night, a scant half hour after a helicopter deposited him on the White House grounds, the President signed into law a priority measure approved by the Senate and the House — a nationwide food stamp plan to improve the diet of needy families.

Senators and House members were called to the executive mansion to stand beside Johnson during the traditional signing ceremony. The President, who is certain to campaign on a

JFK Library Fund Passes $6 Million

BOSTON (AP) — The John F. Kennedy Memorial Library fund has passed the $6-million mark.

A family spokesman said Sunday that the Kennedy family has been "particularly impressed by the industrious youngsters who have staged parties and other activities" to raise money for the proposed $10-million library to be built on a bank of the Charles River overlooking Harvard University.

James V. Lavin, fund drive consultant, said the $6 million includes $1 million from the Kennedy family and $2 million from the AFL-CIO.

Health Care Measure Supported

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze put his support today behind efforts of administration forces in the Senate to win approval of a Social Security health-care plan.

The revised version, Celebrezze said, "gives the Senate an opportunity for a clear-cut vote on the question of hospital insurance for the aged under Social Security."

"The proposal is a sound and sensible approach to one of the nation's most pressing problems," Celebrezze said in a statement.

"I hope that the Senate will approve the amendments."

Administration forces in the Senate are pinning their hopes for a Social Security health care plan on the revised version of the King-Anderson proposal.

Anti-Poverty Bill Called Dishonest

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Henry Bellmon, Oklahoma's first Republican chief executive, accused the Democratic Party of dishonesty and Saturday called the anti-poverty program a project to eliminate Democratic support.

Bellmon spoke at a luncheon at the Arkansas Republican State Convention.

"Look around and where do you see poverty?" Bellmon asked the Republicans. "Poverty is in the deep down, little Dixie counties that are solidly Democratic and in the big Democratic-dominated cities."

"They don't know how to stop poverty, but they know how to bring it back," Bellmon said.

He said jobs created by "free enterprise working for a better living for us all" would eliminate poverty and not place areas and individuals under "destructive federal control."

Notice How Modern Business Office Comes to Life Every Day, Like a Zoo Waking Up

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Have you ever noticed how a modern business office comes to life each day?

It is something like a zoo waking up.

Each white collar peon approaches the daily ordeal of coming to work each morning in a way that inevitably shows what kind of a person he is.

Of course, coming to work is for anyone a test of character, and if you will watch the morning parade to duty in your own office you may find some of the following characters familiar:

The Optimist — He goes immediately to the bulletin board, hoping against hope that overnight the boss has put up an announcement that everybody has been given a 10 per cent merit raise.

When he doesn't find it there, he says, trying to find something to be happy about, "Well, anyway, it's only three more days until Friday."

The Hypochondriac — The first thing he does is go from desk to desk to see if anybody happened to leave a pill there from the day before. Since he doesn't really know what ails him, it is only by taking other people's medicine that he can ever find a cure.

The Senior Vice President — Long years of doing nothing while seeming to be overburdened with cares have made him the best actor in the place.

The Junior Executive — This eager beaver comes in with a briefcase bulging with memos he has written overnight on how

Auto Owners, Union Near Agreement

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP) — Speculation mounted today in this automotive capital that the United Auto Workers Union and Chrysler Corp. may be a lot nearer agreement than UAW President Walter P. Reuther has indicated.

Reuther told a news conference today the speculation was unfounded and was "a product of somebody's imagination."

The UAW leader, who celebrated his 57th birthday today, said: "Based on where we stand now, since the corporation has made no movement, any honest and realistic evaluation would lead anyone to believe that unless Chrysler does make a move there will be a strike."

Reuther said that "President Johnson's scheduled visit here on Labor Day has absolutely no bearing on the Chrysler negotiations." He said the President gave him the spinning commitment several weeks ago before the auto talks reached their current status.

The speculation — and it was purely that — hinged on Reuther's assertion Monday night that President Johnson will keep a Labor Day speaking engagement in Detroit.

Until Reuther's "he will be here," there had been some

Boaters Warned of Ruling at Dam

DARDANELLE, Ark. (AP) — Army Engineers placed signs below Dardanelle Dam Monday warning boaters not to come within 300 feet of the dam.

The signs were placed in compliance with an Arkansas Game and Fish Commission order closing the 300-foot area to boats as a safety measure.

Five persons have drowned below the dam in the last two years as a result of boats capsizing.

Goldwater Gets Back to Politics

By WALTER R. MEARS

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater settled down to the business of politics today after a week's sun-and-sea cruising vacation off the California coast.

The Republican presidential nominee flew by chartered helicopter from Newport Beach to a commercial television studio in west Los Angeles to tape campaign television appearances.

Newsmen were not permitted to attend the actual taping session.

Goldwater, who said he wouldn't shave while at sea and didn't, did so before he arrived at the studio.

A heavy stubble of vacation beard on his face and a blue yachting cap perched on his head, the Arizona senator cruised back to Newport Beach Monday night aboard the borrowed motor yacht Sundance.

"Abe Lincoln did all right in a beard," Goldwater told news photographers as he escorted his wife ashore at the Blalock Bay Club.

On Goldwater's docket today: a long round of television tapings at a Los Angeles studio.

He will record television spot appearances, 30 seconds to five minutes in length, to be shown on stations around the country during his race against President Johnson.

Campaign director Denison Kitchel said they will cover all the basic issues of the campaign.

Goldwater flies home to Phoenix tonight and will open his presidential race Thursday with a address to a rally at Prescott, Ariz.

Kitchel told a news conference Monday California and the Midwest will be two key targets of the Goldwater campaign.

He said the senator may swing through the South in mid-September.

He said Goldwater will be doing a good deal of campaigning in eastern states including New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

Goldwater is due in San Diego Sept. 8 to open a campaign journey up the West Coast.

Donna, Six Others to World's Fair

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Miss America, Donna Axum of El Dorado, will be accompanied by six other Arkansas beauties in an Arkansas delegation which will appear at the New York World's Fair on Arkansas Day, Friday.

Also making the trip are Miss Arkansas, Karen Carlson of Shreveport, La.; Wilma Blevins of Harrison, American Dairy Princess; Barbara McGlothlin of Little Rock, Arkansas Poultry Princess; Melaine Ann Young of Judsonia, Arkansas Fair Queen; Margo Dunaway of Conway, Arkansas Forest Queen; and Martha Johnston of Newport, Arkansas Rodeo Queen.

The state Publicity and Parks Commission said three groups of entertainers would present programs at the fair.

They are Jimmie Driftwood and his son, James Morris Jr., of Timbo; the Fuller Brothers Quartet of Little Rock and Diane Hall of Hazen, winner of the state youth talent contest.

Other officials who will attend are C. Hamilton Moses of Little Rock, chairman of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission; Lambert Dial of Brinkley, chairman of the Publicity and Parks Commission; and Bob Evans of Little Rock, director of the Publicity and Parks Commission.

The group will leave Wednesday.

Negro Group Is Raided, Bomb Material Seized

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The national headquarters of a Negro group was raided by police inside the riot-torn section of North Philadelphia, where quiet reigned today after a weekend of looting and pillaging.

The four-square-mile area still was under tight security, with a 24-hour cordon in effect and more than 1,200 policemen on patrol.

Mayor James H. J. Tate said the restrictions will remain in effect at least until Labor Day.

In a statement late Monday night, the mayor said the area was "extremely quiet," with even less activity than normal. "I think we are out of the woods," he said, "but we are still watching the situation."

A squad of 100 policemen made the raid Monday upon Muhammad's African - Asian Cultural Center, two blocks from where the riots broke out late Friday night.

Inspector Millard Meers, who led the raid, said police found flammable fluids used for making fire bombs, a loaded revolver, two bayonets and a knife.

They arrested Shakh Muhammad, described by Meers as a former member of the Black Muslims.

Muhammad was held in $10,000 bail on charges of violating the Uniform Firearms Act, possession of explosives and violating the mayor's proclamation to stay off the streets.

His attorney, Cecil B. Moore, president of the Philadelphia chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, called the high bail a ransom and said the court had "succumbed to hysteria."

Muhammad, 33, came here from Greensboro, N.C. He has been arrested four times. Muhammad once described himself as a Muslim leader and also said he represented the Philadelphia Fighters for Liberty and Justice.

The raids came amid reports that the North Philadelphia riots might have been planned.

Mayor Tate said, "I believe that it was designed and planned and that something triggered the action. There were too many people ready to go."

Dist. Atty. James C. Crumlish said he was convinced the Negro rioting and looting was the work of organized outside agitators.

The rioting and looting caused damages between $500,000 and $3 million, Mayor Tate estimated. He said he would ask federal and state aid to help repair the damage.

CLINTON, Ark. (AP) — Van Buren County Rep. Mack Evans said he will attempt in the 1963 legislature to increase salaries of state policemen.

Evans said he was inspired by a statement from J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, who said that better pay for law enforcement officers would result in more effective crime prevention.

"I heartily agree with Mr. Hoover," Evans said. "I believe if we pay officers more we will get better men and better service. The good men are quitting the State Police. I've had men ask me for State Police jobs and then turn them down when they learned the starting pay was only $300 a month."

Evans said he would either introduce a bill or attempt to amend the State Police budget to set the starting minimum at $400 a month.

Negro Enters Carthage, Miss. School

By JAMES SAGGUS

CARTHAGE, Miss. (AP) — A lone Negro girl registered at this rural central Mississippi town's white school today, the second break in this state's racial barriers in two days.

The child, whose name was not made public, was driven past a heavy security guard to the red-brick schoolhouse. There were no incidents as the school desegregated under a court order.

Four Negro pupils quietly and unexpectedly walked into the junior-senior high school at Marks, in the cotton-growing delta. They filled out application blanks which Supt. L.V. Marks said would have to be processed as transfers.

Marks is not under a federal court order to integrate.

At Carthage, a spokesman for the Congress of Racial Equality said 11 Negro junior and senior high pupils would be taken to Canton, half way between here and the state capital at Jackson.

The Negroes reportedly would try to enroll at the segregated school there.

Fatally Injured by Power Saw

HAMBURG, Ark. (AP) — J. D. Wilson, 45, Negro of Hamburg, was fatally injured today by a power saw while working in the Herculift pallet plant here.

Officials said the sawblade became disengaged and struck Wilson. He died a short time later.

Dropouts Are Too Plentiful

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "I know we have a campaign against school dropouts, but this is just too much," said Joan White.

She received a card from Palmetto High School requesting her to register today for the coming year.

She graduated from the school last June.

Delight Depot Ceiling Falls, Two Injured

Part of the ceiling of Delight Egg Farms' egg depot fell in this morning just before noon, injuring two persons.

A section of the ceiling above the egg grading machines gave way and injured Mrs. Howard Garner who was brought to a local hospital with head and chest injuries by a Herndon-Cornelius Ambulance. A Worker man was also slightly hurt but did not require hospitalization.

A spokesman for the company said apparently the beams came loose, whether from faulty construction or from the weight of an overhead storage room is to be determined.

Production will probably be resumed tomorrow.

State Warm and Mostly Dry

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frontal systems continued to avoid the Mid-South today and the Weather Bureau predicted continued warm, mostly dry weather for Arkansas through Thursday.

The southern section of the state had a few thundershowers Monday and isolated showers are in the forecast for most areas, but rainfall amounts are not expected to be significant.

The only measured rain Monday was .03 inch at Harrison and .04 inch at Memphis.

Monday's maximum temperatures were in the 90s and today's high was forecast in the same range. Overnight lows ranged in the high 60s and low 70s with the same range expected a gain tonight.

Sees World Famine as Much Nearer

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
CHICAGO (AP) — A world famine striking "hundreds of millions or even billions of human beings" is near, a scientist-economist warned today.

"It will be the most colossal catastrophe in history," declared Dr. Raymond Ewell, vice president for research, State University of New York at Buffalo.

Such a famine in Asia, Africa and South America by the 1970s and later seems almost inevitable as expanding population outstrips food production, he told the American Chemical Society.

Dr. Ewell said the only immediate step open to avert it is for the United States and Europe to make outright Good Samaritan gifts of millions of tons of fertilizers to increase local food yields.

The deadline even or succeeding this way is only a few years away, he said.

Birth control is the ultimate answer, Dr. Ewell said, but its effects on the food-population problem will be slow. Unless birth control is applied, however, the famine would still come regardless of boosts in food production, he said.

By present trends, "it seems likely that the famine will reach serious proportions in India, Pakistan and China in the early 1970s, followed by Indonesia, Iran, Turkey, Egypt and several other countries within a few years, and then follow a day by day of the other countries of Asia, Africa and Latin America by 1980," Dr. Ewell predicted.

Population in these areas will increase by about one billion persons in 20 years, but food output has not been increasing, he said.

"I'd like to offer an amendment to Roberts' Rules of Order!"

The Story: Frank Ives has many questions to be answered. Among them is whether Jupe Coffin is an outlaw or a man fighting for his rights.

XIV

They were deep in the foot-slopes of the Copper Mountains when Jupe at last gave the order to bed the herd. It was pushing 10 with the stars seeming scarcely a rope's throw away when Ives followed Alex and three beat-out hands through the silvered dark toward the tiny fire the cook had built beside the wagon.

The men ate without talk and soon staggered off to roll into their blankets, pending their hitch at guarding the cows. Ives, full of aches, and unanswered questions, hunched against a wheel with knees drawn up and brush jacket buttoned while the night air nipped at his back and shins. They had baked half the day, yet up here in these hills the temperature, once the sun had gone down, had dropped by the feel at least 40 degrees.

"How's the girl?" Ives said, and Jupe pulled the chin off his chest to throw him a glance that would have curdled milk.

"That all you got to think about, mister?"

Ives, affronted, was halfway minded to take a poke at him. But as they glared, both angry, he was forced to concede, considering the men he had round him, maybe the kid did have some right to his belligerence.

"I'm not interested in your wife, and I can go somewhere else if my company's offensive."

"Candy's my sister," Jupe said with teeth bared. "You ain't goin' noplase till these cows is delivered!"

Ives, thinly staring at the kid's spread grip, presently blew out his breath in a twisted grin. "I'll give you one thing—you got more guts than a cat has hair. Sorry I can't say as much for your savvy."

Jupe held onto his glower for another four-five heartbeats, squinting through the dribble of smoke coming off the hand-rolled pasted to his lips. "Forget it!" he said, straightening out of his crouch, and rasped a considering hand across his jaws. "Mebbe I clawed the wrong tree," he admitted, which was as near, Ives guessed, as Jupe could come to an apology.

"Must be something in the air around here," Ives said, leaning back against the wheel. "Seems like every guy I brace has a chip on his shoulder. You fellows must be feeding on wildcat steaks."

Jupe laughed and after a moment said, "It's the times, I guess. This used to be a pretty fair country before Renwick got that star pinned onto him an' these hills started fillin' up with bleach-eyed drifters. Just two big spreads an' they got a long with everyone, plenty of room an' a passle of frolics."

Ives said idly, "What's the other big spread?"

Jupe's scowl came back. "The one Sam married — Ro-

Officer Cleared in Harlem Riots

NEW YORK (AP) — A grand jury today cleared a police lieutenant of any criminal liability in the fatal shooting of a Negro boy which touched off a series of Harlem riots.

The Manhattan grand jury had investigated at length the slaying of James Powell, 15, by Lt. Thomas Gilligan on a street near a school building in July. It concluded its study without issuing any indictment.

Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said that in doing so the jury had "concluded that on the basis of the evidence and the applicable rules of law, Lt. Gilligan is not criminally liable for the killing of young Powell."

The shooting had brought widespread demands from civil rights groups for suspension of Gilligan from the police department, his prosecution on criminal charges and a civilian board to review police action in such cases.

Then they can use the stamps in the corner grocery for many more food items than the surplus commodities they have had to carry from the distribution centers. Sponsors stressed both the convenience and the variety of foods.

Where instituted — it is now in operation in 43 counties and will be expanded greatly by the new law — the stamp plan replaces the old system of distributing surplus staple food to needy families.

The new program is expected to cost $25 million the first year, $75 million the second, $100 million the third and $200 million the fourth.

The President spent three days on his ranch near Johnson City, having headed for it Friday afternoon after addressing the Democratic National Committee in Atlantic City.

Johnson's running mate, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, and Mrs. Humphrey returned from the ranch Sunday night.

Mrs. Johnson stayed behind on the ranch. A spokesman said she wants to get some house-keeping chores done.

"I'm making the film because I have to," Quine explained. "The story of Synanon seems so vital, so important that it has to be told."

"I first found out about the place two and a half years ago. I was down at my place at the beach one evening with a couple of friends, and we were listening to the radio. A disc jockey said he was going to play a record of a conversation among some dope addicts."

"I listened and was amazed. When it was over, I said to my friends, 'Let's find out about this place called Synanon.' So we drove down the coast for a visit."

Quine found himself immediately engrossed in the place. It was founded in 1958 by a former alcoholic named Chuck Dederich. The idea was to provide communal living for victims of dope, drink, and sex who voluntarily wanted to help themselves. They would work to support the place and talk out their problems in hard-hitting seminars, the word which was ing it to the cost of a government contract."

The senator said that according to a statement he had received from Reynolds, the $25,000 was turned over to Bob Baker "to be used as a contribution to the Johnson-Kennedy campaign fund of 1960."

Williams said that "in the light of this new evidence... I feel the U.S. Senate has no alternative but to reopen the Bob Baker investigation and call as its first three witnesses Mr. Matthew McCloskey, Mr. Bob Baker, and Mr. Don Reynolds."

"The place was controversial from the start, and Dederich even went to jail for zoning infractions," said Quine. "But the important thing is that Synanon works. It can help not only dope addicts, but juvenile delinquents, alcoholics and persons with mental problems."

"I can't tell you how much Synanon has helped me in showing men that guilt is unnecessary and wrong. The people down there are amazing; they come as close to honesty as anyone I know."

Quine has found no trouble in casting. Cast members like Stella Stevens, Richard Conte and Eartha Kitt are so solid on Synanon that they are working for less than their usual salaries.

doubt.

The speculators asked: Could any politician ask for a better Labor Day kickoff for a campaign than an announcement — on free nationwide television — that agreement had been reached on a contract anticipated to guarantee three years of labor peace in one of the nation's bellwether industries?

They also pointed out that Reuther had threatened to strike last Wednesday at midnight any of the Big Three — General Motors, Ford or Chrysler — who failed to meet UAW terms.

A few hours before that deadline arrived, Reuther singled out Chrysler, smallest of the Big Three, as the No. 1 target for a strike — or else.

Reuther never has spelled out anywhere exactly what those terms should be.

He keeps insisting that production workers must get their "equity," measured by what executives and stockholders are pocketing from the industry's most fabulous profits ever over the last 18 months.

While the UAW chief has ridiculed as inadequate and unacceptable virtually parallel offers of the Big Three, spokesmen for the latter have termed their offers generous and "the best ever offered."

Miss Timm Becomes Bride of David Spillers
Miss Carolyn Timm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burton Timm of Little Rock, and David Sidney Spillers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Ernest Spillers of Kenai, Alaska, were married at 4 p.m. August 16 in The Bible Church in Little Rock. A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents.

Herman Sanford of Ouachita Baptist College officiated. Candelights were Matthew Timm and Bob Trout. Mrs. Gerald Small was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of ivory crepe trimmed with satin. It was designated with an empire waistline and long sleeves. Her illusion veil was held by a satin pillbox, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Ruth Sellers of Houston, Tex., was maid of honor.

A. R. Trout of Hope was best man. Ushers were Matt Timm and Joel Timm, brothers of the bride, and Bob Trout.

The couple is now at home at 316 Fairfax Street in Little Rock.

Instant Sell, Accented by Business Now

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the more sedate forms of show business is becoming a major marketing tool of industry. It is the trade show. Increasingly the accent is on the instant sell.

And the more complicated and competitive the U.S. economy becomes, the more are business firms, large and small, turning to the trade show as a prime way to introduce new products that technology spawns.

Salesmen say it all stems back to the increasing role that engineers and scientists play in industry.

Before the war there were about 500 major shows a year. This year the Association of National Advertisers expect to see nearly 2,500 trade shows strung across the nation, with more than 850,000 firms displaying their wares, old and new. Dun & Bradstreet estimates the shows will cost a record $3 billion.

An increasing number of products are being sold, or contracted for, right on the floor of the exhibitions by purchasing agents who have taken this way of seeing all, or most, of the competitive products under one roof.

This year's National Motor Boat Show in New York reported $40 million in sales; officials of the International Automobile Show in New York said sales came to $80 million.

Arthur Smadbeck, president of the New York Coliseum where these shows were held, says the three reasons for the rapid postwar expansion of the trade show are increasing complexity of technology, the growth of a large mass leisure market and the spawning of new businesses.

Dictaphone Corp. officials say their company participates in from 80 to 100 shows each year, with the exhibits stressing new products.

The International Exposition Company has a plastic card imprinter device to help exhibitors at the Exposition of Chemical Industries and the Heating and Air Conditioning Exposition identify visitors. The device allows each firm to keep a record of interested prospects.

Computer tabulations of show attendance this year are giving exhibitors statistical summaries of attendance, with visitors classified by industry, type of firm, and job title.

Show managers used to take up to five weeks to furnish this breakdown. With the new electronic equipment of the job can now be done within 4 hours.

Would Transform Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Winthrop Rockefeller said Monday night that if he is elected governor he will make plans to transform Garland County into a health resort rivaling Palm Springs, Calif.

Rockefeller, the Republican gubernatorial nominee, addressed 100 members of the Arkansas Nurserymen's Association at the group's convention here.

He charged that Gov. Orval E. Faubus is suffering from political and economic near-sightedness. The governor, Rockefeller said, has "myopia" as far as the future of Arkansas is concerned.

He said Faubus lacks the vision to initiate programs which can take full advantage of the resources in the Garland County area.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

Mrs. William Lee Freeman

Miss Claud Ann Sutton and William Lee Freeman were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony at the First Baptist Church Tuesday evening, August 18 at eight o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Howard Sutton of Hope, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Verna Greenlee Freeman of Hope and William Freeman of Memphis.

Dr. George Balentine officiated at the double-ring ceremony before a beautiful background of candles and greenery. Mrs. Hendrix Spraggins, organist, played a program of nuptial music and accompanied the vocal soloist, Mrs. Douglas Drake. She sang "How Do I Love Thee?" before the exchange of vows and "The Lord's Prayer" at the conclusion of the ceremony while the couple knelt on a prie Dieu.

Miss Rebecca Jane Sutton of Little Rock, niece of the bride, and Bernice Hargis, III of Warren, nephew of the bride, lighted the candles while the organist played, "For God So Loved the World."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of ivory satin. The illusion off-shoulder neckline and the long, lily-point sleeves were edged with seed pearls. The fitted bodice was embellished with a design of seed pearls, and the skirt swept into a cathedral train. A small headpiece decorated with silk leaves and seed pearls held in place the three-tiered veil of silk illusion. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Teddy Jones, Jr. was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Sue DeWitt of Alexandria, La., and Mrs. Thomas Sawyer of DeWitt. Each wore a turquoise sheath fashioned with a floor-length bouffant skirt which had a controlled bell front. A self-fabric back bow was above a dramatic back panel lined with a complementary color. A scoop neckline and Kabuki sleeves completed the gown of peau de soie. The attendants wore headpieces in the same color as the dresses and carried carnations in turquoise and white.

Dressed in similar manner to the other attendants was the flower girl, Miss Roxanne Hargis of Warren, niece of the bride. Richard Sutton of Little Rock, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Thomas Sawyer of Pine Bluff served the groom as best man. Groomsman were Clark Olander of San Antonio, Texas, brother-in-law of the groom, and Winston Duke of Arkadelphia. Ushers were James Aldridge of Atlanta, Texas, William Sutton of Little Rock, brother of the bride, Ray Lawrence of Nashville and Bernice Hargis, Jr. of Warren, brothers-in-law of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sutton wore a toast dress of Chantilly-like lace with jacket and matching accessories and pinned a green orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Freeman, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a bronze brocade satin dress trimmed with seed pearls, and she had matching accessories. Her corsage was a bronze-throated yellow orchid.

As the recession was played after the ceremony and the couple left the church, the church bell was rung. A reception followed in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Mrs. Ray Lawrence of Nashville, sister of the bride, greeted the guests at the door.

The serving table was centered with daisies and white carnations flanked by white candles in silver holders. Mrs. Bernice Hargis, Jr. of Warren, sister of the bride, served the tiered wedding cake, and Mrs. William Sutton of Little Rock, sister-in-law of the bride, poured the punch. Mrs. Winston Duke had charge of the bride's book. Little Misses Cindy Hutson and Annette Walker dispensed rice bags to the guests. Mrs. Spraggins, organist, provided the background music for the reception.

Others extending courtesies included Miss Dorothy Smith, Miss Carolyn Yarbrough, Mrs. Hubert Thrash, Mrs. Newton Pentecost, Miss Kathy Thrash, Mrs. Elmer Brown, Miss Patsy Burroughs, and Mrs. Jerry Owen.

For travel the bride chose a white corduroy suit with a white satin collar. A single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, was also worn and a white satin rosette was placed in her hair. Other accessories were white, and she pinned a corsage of roses from her

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — A few months ago an NBC vice president, apparently the one in charge of station breaks, telephoned Jim Backus, the actor who plays the voice of Mr. Magoo in the network's new half-hour comedy starring the near-sighted cartoon character.

"Do you want to drop over to the studio and make voice-over promotion for the end of your show telling the audience to stay tuned to 'Kentucky Jones'?" asked the vice president.

"No," said Backus promptly. "I don't want to. I don't want them to stay tuned to NBC. I want them to switch to CBS."

The vice president, obviously shaken, murmured that he'd get back to Backus. He never did.

The actor had a valid reason for his firm refusal: Jim Backus is also a star in a new CBS show, "Gilligan's Island," which follows "The Famous Adventures of Mr. Magoo" on the rival network.

This makes Backus television's only double-threat, two-network, performer.

It would be difficult to replace Backus in "Mr. Magoo" since he has played it since the little fellow was created as a theater cartoon about 18 years ago. "I AM Magoo," he says.

"The Famous Adventures of Mr. Magoo" is a spin-off of NBC's special "Mr. Magoo's Christmas Carol," in which the little character played Ebenezer Scrooge. During the next few months he'll be playing Rip Van Winkle, Friar Tuck, Long John Silver, all the seven dwarfs, Don Quixote, Captain Kidd, Cyrano, William Tell and Gunga Din, among others, in adaptations of famous stories.

In the comedy series "Gilligan's Island," Backus will be playing a millionaire castaway, one of seven survivors of a shipwreck, who continues to live in country-club style in spite of his surroundings and problem of survival.

Backus, who started his radio career almost 30 years ago, made his first television splash 11 years ago with "I Married Joan," in which he played straight man to the late Joan Davis. The series is still around in re-runs, and so is another series he made later. Then there are all the Magoo shows seen in assorted children's hours, plus a raft of commercials starring the character.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman will be at home in Little Rock.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding and reception were: Mrs. Otis Cash, Mrs. Ernest Gibbs, Mrs. Jerry Richardson, Mrs. William Hargis, Jr., Warren; Mrs. Clark Olander, sister of the bridegroom, San Antonio, Texas; Mrs. James Aldridge and Linda Lou, Atlanta, Texas; Mrs. Barney Smith, Mrs. Lee Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jay To-land, Vickie and Jayne, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Barentine, Nashville; Mr. and Mrs. Otis Carter, Lester Hamilton, Texarkana; Mr. and Mrs. William Dewitt and Edith Jane, Alexandria, La.; Miss Marcia Bowden, Tyler, Texas; Mrs. Darryl Messer, Pine Bluff; Miss Wanda Moore, Crossett; Bob Bryce, Kansas City; David and Randy Perkins, New Orleans; Miss Virginia Paslay, Bauxite; Mrs. B. Dismissal of UA Suit Is Sought

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Little Rock attorney filed a motion in U.S. District Court here Monday asking dismissal of a suit seeking to end segregated housing at the University of Arkansas.

The suit was filed by Robert Whitfield, 25, of Little Rock and Joanna Edwards of Pine Bluff. Both are Negro students at the University.

Griffin Smith, attorney for the university's board of trustees, contended in his motion for dismissal that the suit was filed in the wrong court.

He said it should have been filed in U.S. District Court at Fort Smith, instead of at Little Rock.

The suit was filed against the board of trustees, which Smith said was made "a body politic and corporate" by an 1887 legislative act and thus was not a state board.

In addition to ending segregation of housing, the suit also asks an end to all forms of racial discrimination at the school. The university has separate dormitories for white and Negro women students but no facilities for Negro men.

Thinks Raider Fans Expect Too Much

OAKLAND
SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP) — Al Davis, the American Football League's Coach of the Year last season with a surprising 10-4 record at Oakland, is afraid people will expect too much this season.

"Our big problem is that the expectancy is so much greater," said Davis at the Raiders' training camp. "We beat San Diego, Kansas City and Houston twice each last year. Even if we split even with them, we'll be only 7-7. Last year doesn't count. This is a new season. Our problem is to stay where we are."

The Raiders' amazing success of 1963 has paid off at the box office. Davis reports an advance season ticket sale of close to 12,000, compared to 7,800 a year ago.

"Everybody is coming around to see if it's true about us," he said.

"We have the smallest club in the league, a decent first team, but we need help. I hope we can get some help from the others that are so far ahead of us."

Before stopping to wipe away the crocodile tears, Davis admitted, "We should be better in over-all intelligence about our system and in added experience."

Davis has a fine split end in Art Powell, whom he calls "the best in pro football." Powell reportedly was thinking of playing Canadian football but he is back with the Raiders.

Tom Flores, starting his fourth year of pro ball, is the No. 1 quarterback, with help from Cotton Davidson. In addition to Powell, Flores has flanker Bo Roberson and tight end Ken Herock as his top receivers. Jan Barrett is behind Herock.

Clem Daniels, a workhorse halfback, is the key to the Raiders' running attack. "Daniels is a great athlete," said Davis. "Our trouble is that we don't have anybody behind him."

Glenn Shaw and Bobby Jackson are fighting for the fullback job. Jackson is the former New Mexico State blaster who came to Oakland from San Diego in a deal originally described facetiously by Sid Gillman as a loan. Later Gillman said he was only kidding.

Jim Otto, perennial all-league center, heads the offensive line, that includes Prober Jacobs and Frank Youso or Dick Klein at tackles and Sonny Bishop, Wayne Hawkins, Ken Rice and Bob Mischak among the guards.

The defensive picture has been complicated by Dave Costa's shoulder dislocation. Costa was a front line tackle. Dan Birdwell and rookie Rex Mich of Arizona State are working at the tackles and Dalva Allen and Jon Jelacic at ends.

Jack Simpson and Clancy Osborne are the outside linebackers, with dependable Arch Matos in the middle.

The defensive backfield has Fred Williamson and Warren Powers at the corners and Tom Morrow and either Joe Krakoski or Claude Gibson at safety.

BATTING — Wes Parker, Dodgers, hit his first home run of Boston University.

"San Diego is the best in our division," said Davis, who is his old boss, Gillman, in both meetings last year.

"Seriously, our big problem is the relative strength of the other clubs in our division and how much their have improved. Kansas City handled us pretty good in our first exhibition. We beat Denver but that was before they got Jack Lee. Everybody is waiting to kick the tar out of us."

American Swimmers Confident

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Marilyn Ramenofsky, fresh from slicing another huge chunk off the world record for the women's 400-meter freestyle, says she's going to be better.
Fred Schmidt, just after trimming the American mark in the men's 200-meter butterfly to 2:08, thinks it will take 2:05 to win the event in the Olympics. The world mark of 2:06.9 is held by Australia's Kevin Berry.
Donna de Varona right after chopping her own world standard in the 400-meter individual medley to 5:14.9, says "I'll have to go faster to win in the Olympics."
This should give you some kind of an idea of the record-busting spree expected to brighten up the Olympic swimming championships at Tokyo, Oct. 10-24.
Miss Ramenofsky, who just turned 18 on Aug. 20, came out of nowhere to top the women's world list for 400-meter freestyle with a best time of 4:45.
This year the Pomona State-bound brunette has repeatedly hammered down one of swimming's hardest world records — the 4:41.5 set by Olympic queen Chris Von Saltz in the 1960 Olympic trials at Detroit.
In the recent nationals at Los Altos Hills, Calif., she sliced the standard to 4:41.7. Then in the final of the Olympic trials Monday, she sizzled to a 4:39.5 record, pushed all the way by 18-year-old Terri Stickles, another power swimmer from the Santa Clara S.C. Terri also surpassed the pending world mark with a time of 4:41.5.
Schmidt, a 20-year-old Indiana junior from Northbrook, Ill., eclipsed Carl Robie's American record of 2:08.2 by two-tenths of a second in edging Robie in the butterfly final. Robie, a Michigan junior from Drexell Hill, Pa., was second — earning a second berth on the Olympic squad — in 2:08.4.
Phil Riker, 17-year-old high school grad from Paterson, N.J., bagged the third Olympic berth in the event with 2:09.5.
The Tuesday schedule includes heats and finals in the men's 200-meter backstroke, women's 100-meter butterfly and heats only in the men's 1,500-meter freestyle. The metric mile final is tabbed for Wednesday.

Bobcats Open at Texarkana Friday Night

By CARTER HARDAGE
Hope Star Sportswriter

Friday night the Bobcats journey to Texarkana to face one of the most highly rated Razorback teams to come along in years.

Coach Swede Lee has produced a modern football miracle in his short time at Arkansas High. The Hogs have come in the space of two short years from the cellar to among the big guns of AAA football in a real rags to riches story.

Slated last year by those who supposedly know to finish far down, if not at the bottom of the pack, they pulled the gridiron surprise of the year by finishing third. They trailed only the phenomenal Zebras of Pine Bluff, whom they tied 7-7, and Fort Smith.

This year the experts are being a little more careful about selling the Hogs short. Rated first on the Associated Press poll of the last week, they have now dropped down to third. AP places Hope as eleventh in the state.

Although the Hog secret weapon of last year, David Cooper, left at graduation, Coach Lee has 16 lettermen returning. Strong point for Texarkana should be quarterback. The 190-pounder Freddie Green can either run or pass well enough to be regarded as a threat in either direction. Gene Lott backs him up and is rated as a top hurler.

Although Bobcat head coach Alan Howard allows Texarkana due respect, he declares, "our kids are going into this game with the idea that we're coming out of it as No. 3 instead of No. 11."

Palmer Still Top Money Golfer

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Arnold Palmer has been coming in second for the fat purses on professional golf's tournament trail recently.

He has played in 22 tournaments and has won only two, but is on top of the list of the 10 leading money winners with $110,743, the Professional Golfers Association said Monday.

Jack Nicklaus dropped to second place at $101,917. Tony Lema was third with $72,555.

Orioles Add Sam Jones in Stretch Drive

A bad arm. A strong back. A new face. And an old head. They belong to four different pitchers, who represent the most important commodity as the major leagues head today day not to pitch again this season.

The bad arm belongs to Sandy Koufax, the ace left-hander of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who was advised by a doctor Monday not to pitch again this season.

The strong back belongs to Juan Marichal, the ace right-hander of the San Francisco Giants, who passed his physical and was pronounced fit to pitch again.

The new face belongs to Masanori Murakami, a left-handed relief specialist called up by the Giants, who will become the first native-born Japanese to play for an American major league team.

The old head belongs to Sad Sam Jones, a 38-year-old right-hander purchased by Baltimore to bolster its pitching staff in the American League pennant scramble.

Koufax, the winningest pitcher in the major's with a 19-5 record and a 1.74 earned run average, underwent an examination on his inflamed left elbow in Los Angeles and was told not to attempt to pitch any more this season.

Marichal, a 15-game winner who has been virtually idle since July 29, underwent an examination in New York, where the Giants are scheduled to start a series with the Mets. He was told there was no trace of the pinched nerve in his back that has been bothering him.

While Marichal returns to the Giants, Murakami was called up from San Francisco's Fresno farm club in the California League, where he compiled an 11-7 record in relief with a 1.78 ERA. Murakami, 20, struck out 157 batters while walking only 33.

In his first year as a professional player, Murakami was one of three Japanese players signed by the Giants earlier this year.

The American League leading Orioles, meanwhile, pulled off a big surprise by dipping into the minors and purchasing Jones

Drysdale Halts Cardinals for the Dodgers

By MIKE RATHET

Tony Oliva, Minnesota's rookie sensation is within striking distance of six American League records for first-year players.

Oliva, whose real first name is Pedro, continued his heavy hitting Monday, lashing a double and a single and scoring the winning run as the Twins edged Washington 2-1 in the only American League game scheduled.

In the only game on the National League program, Maury Wills and Wes Parker, who had one homer between them going into the game, each connected in support of Don Drysdale and powered the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 12-3 victory that snapped St. Louis winning streak at six games.

Oliva adopted his new first name in 1961 when he borrowed his brother Tony's passport to get out of Cuba. Since he's been with the Twins this year he's learned to adapt himself to American League pitching.

The 24-year-old left-handed swinger currently leads the league in four departments — batting, hits, runs scored and doubles while threatening a half-dozen rookie marks.

Here's the way Oliva and the record-holders compare:
Average — Oliva is hitting .332. Dale Alexander set the AL mark of .343 with Detroit in 1929.

Hits — Oliva has 184. Alexander holds the AL record with 215. The major league record — which may be out of reach — is 223 by Lloyd Waner of Pittsburgh in 1927.

Runs — Oliva has scored 99 times. Joe DiMaggio of the New York Yankees is the AL record-holder with 132 in 1936. Waner holds the major league record of 133.

Doubles — Oliva has 36. Roy Johnson slammed 45 for Detroit in 1929.

Homers — Oliva has 28. Jimmie Hall of the Twins set the AL record with 33 last season.

Total Bases — Oliva has 318. DiMaggio holds the AL record of 367 set in 1936.

Oliva scored what turned out to be the winning run against the Senators when he singled in the fourth inning and came around on a single by Don Mincher and Hall's double. Zoilo Versalles supplied the other run with a third-inning homer.

Jim Grant had a three-hit shutout going until the eighth when wildness put him in a jam. Two walks and Don Blasingame's single brought in a Washington run and a Minnesota reliever, Bill Pleis. Pleis struck out pinch hitter Fred Valentine to end the rally.

Backed by Wills' second homer of the season and Parker's first, Drysdale brought his record to 15-13. He struck out 12 Cardinals for a season total of 201 — second only to the 223 fanned by teammate Sandy Koufax.

Drysdale also delivered a key hit as the Dodgers struck for five runs in the fourth inning and put the game out of reach. With two out in the inning, Drysdale tied the score 2-2 with a two-run single.

Wills then walked to load the bases and Dick Tracewski followed with a grounder to third on which Ken Boyer threw wild, enabling three runs to score.

Hambletonian Record Could Be Broken

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — There is a little talk of a mile record being broken in Wednesday's Hambletonian although the unofficial even-money favorite, Ayres, has shown tendencies of being a speed maniac.

In the first place, the record of 1:57 3-5 set by Floris in the first heat last year is spectacularly low.

If there is a record shot, however, it again could come in the first heat as the small field of nine colts form a single tier line behind the mobile starting gate for trotting's premier event.

Given good weather, the red clay mile oval of the Du Quoin State Fairgrounds, where bet-from Columbus of the International League for cash estimated in the neighborhood of the $20,000 waiver price and a minor league player to be named later.

"I wanted someone with experience," said Manager Hank Bauer.

Jones has a background of 11 seasons in the majors, during which he won 102 games and lost 101. He pitched two no-hitters and was named the outstanding pitcher in the National League when he posted a 21-15 record for San Francisco in 1959.

1894 Football Birthdate

The University of Arkansas began fielding varsity football teams in 1894. That first year the squad played a three-game schedule.

ing is banned, can be as fast as a drag strip.

Ayres, the little hot rod to be driven by John Simpson Sr., will come out of the No. 7 slot.

Horses towards the rail probably will try to keep Ayres on the outside as long as possible, thus making him trot farther or faster, if he wants to get far enough ahead to cut towards the inside.

Under this pressure, there is a chance of a record. Inside Ayres in the post positions are No. 1 Dartmouth, No. 2 Speedy Count, No. 3 Big John, No. 4 Scribe Rodney, No. 5 Sasebo and No. 6 Rain Water.

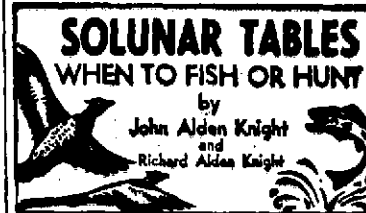

In the two spots outside of Ayres are No. 8 Speedy Rodney and No. 9 Bedevil.

Given the best chance to challenge Ayres are Speedy Count and Speedy Rodney, listed as 5-2 and 5-1, respectively.

The first horse to win two heats becomes the Hambletonian champion. Post positions for the second heat are determined on order of finish in the first. Thus, if Ayres wins the first he will be parked on the rail in the No. 1 spot or the second.
